Kukkiwon

(Haedquarters of the World Taekwondo Federation)

The Kukkiwon, Headquarters of the World Taekwondo Federation, is located atop the hillside in Youngdong District in Seoul, Korea just 5 minutes ride from the 3rd Han River Bridge.

This building with beautiful original Korean style roof was constructed in 1972 to house world headquarters and to provide modern facilities for trainings and competitions of Taekwondo.

The first and only gymnasium of its kind in the world, Kukkiwon was inaugurated in November 30, 1972 in the presence of Prime Minister Kim, Jong Pil and many sports leaders.

The construction work of Kukkiwon, a million dollar project, commenced on November 19, 1971 on the site of 10,000 square meters.

Korea Grabs All Golds

Defending champion Korea retained its supremacy by snatching all eight gold medals in the second World Taekwondo Championships which ended Sunday in Seoul.

Nationalist China captured two silver and four bronze medals to place second in the four-day biennial championships.

Mexico took third place and West Germany fourth with two silver and one bronze medals respectively.

Australia finished fifth with one silver and two bronzes, followed by Guam with one silver, Ivory Coast with two bronzes, the United States, the Philippines, Uganda, Japan, Iran and Costa Rica with one bronze respectively.

The Korea-originated self-defense martial art contest started last Thursday at Kukkiwon on the southeastern outskirts of Seoul with 252 competitors from 30 countries participating.

About 10,000 enthusiastic fans at Changchung Gymnasium in downtown Seoul viewed the finals of the taekwondo tournament in the eight divisions ranging from finweight to heavyweight.

On the fourth day of the championships, Hwang Yong-su of Korea trounced Jaime de Fabros of Mexico in the finweight division to clinch the coveted title. En route to victory Hwang scored a knock-down over the Mexican in the second round.

Flyweight Han Yu-gun of Korea edged Taiwanese Kiu Chin-chien and bantamweight

Son Tae-bwan outpointed Mexican Ramiro Guzman.

Featherweight Lee Kye-sung and lightweight Yu Yong-gap beat West Germany's Dahnmen Wolfgang and Australia's Michael Adey respectively, while welterweight Hur Song and middleweight Yang Yong-gwan, both of Korea, dumped Taiwanese Kiang Ping-hui and Steve Pound of Guam.

In the last match of Sunday finals, Korea's Choi Chong-du won the heavyweight title by a lottory after a draw with Lukeken McInolf of West Germany in the 12-minute four rounds. They evenly fought in the regular three rounds and went into another extra round to decide the winner.

The next championships will be staged in Los Angeles, Calif. in 1978 after being held in Manila, the Philippines in 1977 as one of the events of the first World Game One.

Gov't to Newly Hire 9,008 Teachers in '76

The Ministry of Education plans to newly appoint 9,008 teachers for state-run schools next year to fill the wide gap between demand and supply of teachers across the country, Education Ministry sources said yesterday.

The 9,008 new teachers comprise 2,602 for primary schools, 2,604 for middle schools, 3,371 for high schools, 340 for colleges, 17 for junior vocational colleges and 42 for machinery schools, the sources said.

They explained that the ministry was consulting on the matter with the Ministry of Government Administration and the Economic Planning Board to secure funds needed for the program.

The drastic increase in the number of primary school teachers is to meet the increase in the number of children to enroll in primary schools next year, according to the sources. The increase in the number of school teachers represents some 6.5 percent of the present total.

They added that the additional number of primary school teachers was equivalent to the number of classes to be increased in primary schools next year. Some 575 new classes are planned in Seoul.

As for middle and high schools, the sources said that the plan to increase teachers in the schools was also to equalize the educational qualities of middle and high schools.

Sept. Heralds Clear Sky, Harvest

In the first month of the fall, September, the nation will see cool, rainy skies, the Central Meteorological Office forecast yesterday. Beginning around Sept. 20, the weather will grow typically autumnal, with clear transparent skies with cool mornings and evenings.

People will celebrate "Cusok" (Moon Festival) on Sept. 20, paying homage to their ancestors with rice cakes baked with newly harvested rice. After the traditional Korean celebration, a fall rainy season will follow in the last part of the month, the weathermen said.

September is the busiest month for farmers, who have to harvest the year's crop in the month.

IZJAVA

PROF P^hanjo, student iz Karlovca u vezi sa učestvovanjem na Svjetskom šampionatu kolovosa e.g. u Seulu, a na traženje I. Odbera Taekwondo saveza daje slijedeću izjavu:

Za Svjetski šampionat šuli smo u Rimu gdje smo u lipnju e.g. bili na uzvratno takmičenje sa Italijanima. Ali tada smo rekli da ako nas i zovu nemamo više novaca sa tako daleki put. Oni koji su lani bili na šampionat u Montrealu najviše su sami smislili trošak puta a te su pune veliki troškovi.

Početkom kolovosa smo doznali da smo pozvani da dođemo na šampionat u Seul i da nam Svjetska taekwondo federacija plati trošak puta. To nas je obradovalo, posebne nas mladje koji još nismo bili na Svjetskom prvenstvu a i te što će se vidjeti jednu zemlju u Aziji.

Naša uprava Taekwondo saveza je bila konsultirana, ali su rekli da su ednori i da se nemogu sastati, da nemaju kveruma. No, predsjednik i tajnik su poduzeli mjere da izvide da li se može putovati u zemlju sa kojom nemamo diplomatske odnose ako nam se daše visa. Koliko se sjećam rečeno je da nema političkih razloga da nama mogli putovati ali se čeka još neka potvrda ili slično.

Kada su nam već javili da su stigle i karte i mi trebali sa koji dan putovati rečeno je daše netko u SOFK-i protivni, mislim iz Beograda. Pošto smo i od ranije znali da ne bi mogli po pravilima SOFK-e biti reprezentacija jer nemam Jugoslavenski taekwondo Savez to smo se dogovorili da idemo kao pojedinci iz Jugoslavije i da se kao takvi i takmičimo. Rekli smo ako mogu ići u J. Koreju sportaši iz mnoge nesvrstanih zemalja mašte ne bi išli i mi, makar se po preporukama SOFK-e nebi mogli takmičiti ne same na prvenstvu nego kao reprezentacija ni sa reprezentacijom bile koje zemlje.

Tako smo otputovali mirne savjesti da ne činimo ništa što bi povrijedilo interese naše zemlje, makar smo u neku ruku bili svjesni da nešto nije u skladu sa pravilima SOFK-e, ali pošto još uvijek nismo u članstvu SOFK-e možda nas te i ne obavezuje.

na šampionatu smo se ponašali kao što to dolikuje građanima nesvrstane i socijalističke Jugoslavije.

IOC Recognition

At full Programme Commission meeting of the International Olympic Committee (IOC) in Lausanne, Switzerland on 15 – 16 April, 1980, decision was made to recommend recognition of the World Taekwondo Federation to the IOC Executive Board and General Assembly.

On 17th July 1980, the World Taekwondo Federation was granted recognition by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) at its 83rd General Session in Moscow.

Dr. Kim with IOC President H.E. Juan Antonio Samaranch at IOC Executive Board-IF meeting on 11th April, 1981 in Lausanne, Switzerland.

CONVENTION SIGNED BETWEEN IOC PRESIDENT AND WTF PRESIDENT

as of Nov. 10, 1982

CONVENTION BETWEEN THE IOC AND THE FI

In order to protect the independence of the Olympic Movement in general and of each of its members in particular, the two parties have agreed as follows:

1. When the running or the composition of a recognised National Olympic Committee is arbitrarily modified by the decision of a body from outside the Olympic Movement, this National Olympic Committee may be suspended by the International Olympic Committee, which requests:

- the World Taekwondo Federation to suspend its corresponding affiliated national federation, and to forbid all its other national federations to have any contact with this national federation suspended;
